The user experience with this camera on Linux and Chrome OS is subpar at best. The camera does work.

However, there are some features/settings that are only accessible when using Logitech's Camera Settings App (which of course doesn't run on Linux or Chrome OS). Logitech's continued disregard for Linux users is beyond frustrating.

Logitech 4K Pro Webcam supports enhanced video collaboration from any personal workspace at home or in the office. Ultra 4K HD renders video in outstanding resolution, color, and detail. RightLight 3 and High Dynamic Range (HDR) technologies auto-adjust to help you look your best in any lighting environment, from low light to direct sunlight.
