Bo Diddley (McComb, 30 de diciembre de 1928 - Archer, 2 de junio de 2008), nacido como Ella Otha Bathes [1] y luego cambiado durante su infancia a Ellas McDaniel, fue un compositor, cantante y guitarrista estadounidense que tuvo una gran influencia en el rock and roll. Se le suele considerar como la figura predominante en la transición del blues al rock and roll, creador de ...

Muddy Waters's band became a proving ground for some of the city's best blues talent, with members of the ensemble going on to successful careers of their own. In 1952, Little Walter left when his single " Juke " became a hit, although he continued a collaborative relationship long after he left, appearing on most of the band's classic recordings in the 1950s.
